Sumup about submitted project report to EU & financial reporting

Sumup notes:

- M18 report submitted for RP1 and accepted (google-folder with RP1 materials: <https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1SJ8J2NltW5hSswQFqHVIq6j98jdOurDx>)
- 2nd payments have been transferred to all participants.
- 3rd payment (final payment) takes place when all project activities have been successfully completed.
- RP1 Main results achieved: most importantly the number of recruited students & moderators!
Numbers in DigiCampus for students and moderators, CLUVEX VE Week Pilot in Oct 2024:
 - registered participants in the Students' and Moderators' DigiCampus areas: 429 and 77;
 - with certificates: 247 and 37 (based on active participation);
 - with credits: 114 and 37 (based on submitted reports).
 - BUT this continues to be a challenge for the upcoming 3rd, 4th and 5th VE Weeks in 2025 and 2026. All partners need to be very active to recruit students & new moderators for these weeks.

Lessons-learnt:

- (1) Correct visual identity (EU Erasmus+ co-funding logo and Disclaimer text) should be used in all CLUVEX project relevant documents/ materials from the start of the project
 - (2) Because of war, additional effort from the UH (as coordinator) side was required to assist UA Partners with Deliverables
 - (3) Importance of 3-6-12 months Reporting-to-Coordinator by WPs and Teams leaders & monthly online project meetings for smooth and efficient coordination and management of the project workflow
- WP2: Preparatory Work for Virtual Exchanges (VEs) (by ONU – Valeriya Ovcharuk)

Sumup notes:

- (1) The work on WP2 was completed by 31 Dec 2024
- (2) All WP2 Tasks & Dels reported as Reports to EU in webportal & linked at the CLUVEX Public website:
 - D2.1. Virtual Exchange Guidebook (VEG)
 - D2.2. Climate Literacy Guidebook (CLG)
 - D2.3. Climate Messenger Code of Conduct (CMC)
 - D2.4. Training programs/ syllabi
 - D2.5. e-Living Annex to the Virtual Exchange Guidebook

Lessons-learnt (relates also to WP4 Implementation):

- (1) We have produced plenty of materials. We need to carefully consider how we communicate the materials to students and emphasize that it is "good to get to know them before the course." The course requires only 1 credit.
- (2) The course registration process has been found to be complicated. Not everyone has been able to register on DigiCampus. We need to simplify the process and also find motivated students for everyone. In this work, each university's own practices and how the course is advertised play a big role.
- (3) Based on the feedback, study points are not the most important motivating factor for students. Instead, students emphasize the "importance of international experience". This is a good thing to take into account when marketing the 3rd VE week.
- (4) We collect a lot of feedback through surveys. This could be clarified. We cannot create overly complicated processes even though we want student feedback.
- (5) The Climate Horizon exercise should be clarified in the weekly program. We cannot assume that students will independently familiarize themselves with the task in advance so that it does not need to be completed at the beginning of the week (Monday).
- (6) The concept of the weekly program can be changed: on Monday, more time is given to explaining the joint exercise. Two lectures from Monday can be moved to Tuesday and Wednesday so that the Monday program is not too tight.
- (7) During the VE Week, we encountered many students facing challenges with the English language. To better support them, we should consider more actively using translators or grouping students with moderators who share the same native language to facilitate smoother communication and participation.

- WP3: Moderators' Training for VEs (by TSNUK – Olga Shevchenko)

Sumup notes:

- (1) WP3 objectives, tasks (T3.1 - completed & T3.2 and T3.3 continued in RP2), dels (D3.1 "Set of online tutorials/ recordings for the CLUVEX trainings and course modules" - completed), resources, trainings, risks
- (2) Completed CLUVEX Trainings (TR) for moderators: TR1 - CLUVEX concept & technical skills - 8 May 2024 (58 participants); TR2 - Climate University MOOCs - 14 May 2024 (44 participants); TR3 - Soft skills - 27 May 2024 (33 participants); TR4 - CLUVEX handbooks & materials – 5 Sep 2024 (40 participants); TR5 - CLUVEX group exercise "Climate Horizon" – 12 Sep 2024 (46 participants) and Extra TR#6 - Moderators-get-together - 27 Sep 2024 (34 participants)

Lessons-learnt:

- (1) We initially developed 5 x Zoom tutorials on various topics with materials in autumn 2023. In the future, we will implement 3 x 1.5 h moderators-get-together meetings on Zoom before the virtual exchange weeks. We announced that moderators will be offered materials for familiarization at DigiCampus.
- (2) The moderators will have access to the same DigiCampus area throughout the project. The advantage of this is that we will grow the moderator community and we can send them emails via DigiCampus.
- (3) More information is needed about moderators' study credits, e.g. how they can continue to Climate University courses. This has been unclear to many.

- WP4: Implementation of VEs (VE Weeks for Students) (by UCPH – Alexander Baklanov)

Sumup notes:

- (1) WP4 objectives, tasks (4.1, 4.2, 4.3 - started in RP1 and continued in RP2), dels (D4.1 “Initial test of the Climate University pilot course”), resources, trainings, risks
- (2) Preparing and Advertising the 1st VE Week
- (3) Results of the 1st VE Week
- (4) Lessons learned from the 1st VE Week
- (5) Reference to results of the 2nd VE Week (to be delivered by Aleks V.)

Lessons-learnt (from 1st VEW):

- (1) Participants: Students have a 50% drop-out versus registered and active participation. Majority of the participating students were from Finland and Ukraine. It was noted that the CLUVEX partner universities had different practices, e.g. pre-agreed and attendance of overlapping lectures. For the 2nd VE Week, a better scheduling to avoid the overlap with exam period /vacations /other events is needed. Some of the moderators were very motivated, some just dropped out and “the absence of the moderators at the last minute caused a stressful situation. It is important to consider how we engage moderators to be committed to participate in the VE Week (currently, getting a credit is only one way).
- (2) Lectures, Tools, Climate Horizon Exercise: The lectures on climate related topics were clear, the web-based tools for climate related data visualisation, analysis and interpretation were interesting and, in general, relatively easy to use. Presentation with a demonstration about the IPCC Web-Based Atlas (by Risto Makkonen, FMI/UH) was especially praised. Additional tool (suggested by Karim Rezaul, UH) called the C-Roads Climate Change Policy Simulator (<https://www.climateinteractive.org/c-roads>) was proposed. The Climate Horizon exercise (individual and collaborative parts) was well received and understood correctly. The Miro (for collaboration to work on exercise) was great, and we also got good students' and moderators' reports. We also received a lot of research material (Miro(s), reports, feedback surveys, etc.), and basically, we plan to use the same materials for the 2nd VE Week in May 2025, only with minor updates where it is needed.

- (3) Zoom & Miro & DigiCampus: Zoom max capacity is 500 participants: 440 students + 50 moderators + 10 staff / lectures, etc. During the 1st VE Week Laura Riuttanen (UH) acted as the main host, and for the 2nd VE Week for students we need new candidates from Copenhagen/Odessa/Kyiv/Yerevan to act as hosts. Mikko Kulmala (UH) was acting as a Zoom key admin, and there is a need for backup person(s). Julia Karhumaa and Aleksi Vauhkonen (UH) were in the Helpdesk break-out-room and helped in organizing small groups (assigning students and moderators).
- (4) Students and moderators as new users quickly learn to use the Miro collaborative platform. For the 2nd VE Week, we do not expect any problems with that tool. They quickly learn to use the educational platform. For the 2nd VE Week, we need to minimize the unnecessary registrations on the platform (dropouts).
- (5) Also answering the pre-questionnaire could be a condition for getting credentials (access) for the DigiCampus area.
- (6) Concluding remarks The 1st VE Week pilot showed that our CLUVEX planned concept / Horizon Exercise worked in practice. Now there is a joint vision and understanding how to organize a good VE Week event for students. The event involves several technical e-platforms: DigiCampus (education), Zoom (communication), Miro (collaboration). It is also important to remember the challenges of remote communication such as technical interruptions and the special circumstances of the Ukrainian wartime (air alarms, access to the internet / electricity), language skills (English) and soft skills.
- (7) External collaboration - Advertising on the WMO Global Campus can help to extend the geography and number of participating students in the following VE Weeks.
- (8) External collaboration - We can also collaborate with WMO Regional Centres to broaden outreach and involve additional participants in the VE Week.
- (9) External collaboration - We can involve full partners from the ClimEd project - who also serve as associated partners in the CLUVEX project—to help recruit and engage more students for the VE Week.

- WP5: Dissemination, Visibility and Sustainability (by YSU – Arsen Aproyan)

Sumup notes:

- (1) WP5 objectives, dissemination activities, project branding and identity
- (2) Project logo, hashtag, motto, brandbook, templates & Slogan “Connecting Students for a Greener Future”
- (3) Online Presence & Engagement; Dissemination Materials Produced
- (4) Key Events & Highlights
- (5) Summary & Takeaways

Lessons-learnt:

- (1) Local Language Matters - Translation of materials into partner languages improved accessibility and engagement, especially in Ukraine and Armenia.
- (2) Social Media Requires Structure - regular posting schedules, clear responsibilities, and branded content boosted engagement across platforms. We have good activity on LinkedIn #cluvex. Students have posted their certificates, among other things.
- (3) We need to ask cluvex week participants to be active on LinkedIn
- (4) Internal Coordination is Critical - Dissemination worked best when partners actively contributed local content and updates. Strong internal communication made external visibility possible.
- (5) Storytelling is Powerful - Sharing real student stories and experiences through VE humanized the project and improved visibility more than generic content.
- (6) Traditional + Digital = Maximum Reach - Combining posters, flyers, university media, and social media was more effective than relying solely on one channel.

- Bioart Society in CLUVEX (by Bioart – Yvonne Billimore)

Sumup notes:

- (1) Artistic research and critical thinking at the intersection of art, science and society
- (2) Experiment with ways of seeing and knowing the world
- (3) Imagine another beings possible utopia
- (4) BioArt contributions to WPs 1-5

Lessons-learnt:

- (1) Difficult with timeframe of lecture to effectively communicate scope of the field of art and science, and how to integrate artistic and critical thinking into exercise. More examples of artwork could be added to the literature and website.
- (2) Connecting bioart Society's lecture on artistic research and critical thinking with the Climate horizon exercise makes the methodologies more accessible and tangible for the students to work with.
- (3) First day of lectures was very intense, many didn't stay for the last lecture by Bioart Society. Lectures could be spread across the week. Students would like more time with their group and the moderator on the first day. Framing the exercise prior to the lectures will give more context for the lectures and how to integrate them into the exercises too.

Overall summary: All WP leaders & BioArt reported about own WPs task/activities/dels/mils/etc within the 1st RP (Jul 2023 - Dec 2024), reporting accepted by EU, money transferred to coordinator & redistributed among the CLUVVEX Partners (detailed summary is in the Tech.Report Part B & web-portal)

- CLUVEX VE concept and its improvements (by UH – Hanna K. Lappalainen)

Sumup notes:

- (1) The developed VE concept was tested on the 1st VE Week (Oct 2025) & gradually refined and improved for the 2nd VE Week (May 2025)
- (2) For 3rd VE Week we need to
 - (a) update day-by-day the VE Week programme:
 - (i) Monday: more time to Climate Horizon Exercise
 - (ii) 2 tutorials from Monday to remove to Tue, Wed
 - (iii) more to for small groups

- How to improve moderators’ and students’ engagement (by UH - Laura Riuttanen)

Sumup notes:

- (1) Moderators: In total: 139 participants in moderator DigiCampus, 39 - confirmed, but 18 cancelled and one did not appear; 7 - who did not confirm, but came
- (2) Moderators' support: (i) Before VE - online materials for moderators's TR #1-#5 (from May-Sep 2024) + online trainings TR#1-TR#3 from "Moderators-Get-Together" (Mar-Apr 2025); (ii) During VE - "Moderator discussion area" in DigiCampus as helpdesk during the VE Week; Feedback questionnaire sent after each day of 2nd VE Week <https://elomake.helsinki.fi/lomakkeet/135302/lomakkeet.html>; Hosts visited every group at least once per day; and (iii) After VE - Feedback questionnaire, Feedback meeting?
- (3) Students: in total: Registered - 631; pre-questionnaire -162; post-questionnaire -130; Number of students allocated per group: 10-12; Number of students per group in reality: 1-8
- (4) Discussed on Moderators: How to get the moderators to join again for the coming VE weeks? Some new moderators needed (from the students)? How to reduce moderator drop-out rate? To meet our local moderators onsite?
- (5) Discussed on Students: How to get the registered students to join the VE week? How to increase student interaction in online groups? How to make students feel committed to their group? Ice-breaker activities by moderators in groups on the first day?

- Role and experience of the CLUVEX SAB (by ONU – Mykyta Rozvod)

Sumup notes:

- (1) importance of "Poll of the Day" to get background general information about students/participants of the VE Week
- (2) lively work of groups online with Miro-boards
- (3) control by hosts different break-out-rooms (online work of groups on individual and collective Climate Horizon exercises)
- (4) reported issues: (a) small number of students in groups, keeping silence, (b) unfortunately, the group Chat did not work, messages were sent to the general Zoom chat

- Engagement of the educated students (the Climate Messengers) with CU online education (by UH - Laura Riuttainen)

Sumup notes:

- (1) Who can take the CU courses free of charge: (a) U. Helsinki students, CU network students in Finland; (ab) CLUVEX students who have completed the VE; (c) CLUVEX moderators who have completed the training
- (2) Materials are open to anyone (found on DigiCampus platform), but students need to register to a CU course in order to get credits.
- (3) Examples of CU online courses as independent study, continuously available: (a) Climate.now MOOC, 2 ECTS; (b) Introduction to sustainability MOOC, 3 ECTS; (c) Biodiversity.now MOOC, 2 ECTS.

- (4) Examples of CU online courses as yearly at UH curriculum: (a) Sustainable.now, 5 ECTS, (b) Climate.now, 5 ECTS, (c) Leadership for sustainable change, 5 ECTS, (d) ClimateComms.now, 2 ECTS, (e) Solutions.now, 5 ECTS & Most of these courses require EN language skills and include collaborative work with other students.
- (5) Information on CU courses is found on the CU website <https://www.climateuniversity.fi>. Note that CLUVEX students and moderators have their own registration links to CU courses (found in DigiCampus).
- (6) More effort shall be invested in advertising the CU course possibilities for CLUVEX students and moderators.

- Recruitment of new moderators (incl. education/self-education) from students (by UH - Alexander Mahura)

Sumup notes:

- (1) to follow the same approach with recruiting new moderators from students successfully completed the previous VE Week (after 1st VE Week - 12 new moderators were recruited)

- Agreement on dates for upcoming 3rd, 4th, 5th VE Weeks & Hosts for upcoming VE Weeks

Sumup notes:

- (1) CLUVEX Partners agreed (following ONU, TSNUK, YSU) to arrange and carry out VE Weeks:
- 3rd --- 6-10 Oct 2025, 14-17 pm of Helsinki time
4th --- 23-27 Feb 2026, 14-17 pm of Helsinki time
5th --- 20-24 Apr 2026, 14-17 pm of Helsinki time
 & TSNUK & YSU teams will provide names of own Hosts
 & Mykyta(ONU)+1 and Maher(UCPH)+1 will co-join as the Hosts the 3rd and 4th VE Weeks.
- (2) Current procedure: i) Call-for-Moderators & then, Call-for-Students; 2) registration for Moderators & then, for Students through E-form; iii) instructions to register for Moderators and for Student in DigiCampus; iv) Moderators 3 online trainings & 1 Hosts training before the VE Week; v) the VE Week for students

- (6) Some students also found the tool presentations too difficult. On the other hand, we also provide an art-based option and it is not mandatory to use all the tools & moderators need to be more trained with tools during “Moderators-Get-Together” trainings
- (7) In addition, we discussed how we can increase students' interest in the VE Weeks. Now the student gets 1 ECTS credit point. However, this is not the most important motivation factor, but the "international experience". This is good to note and emphasize more when we advertise the upcoming VE Week! Note, that “Poll of the Day” has only a single option to select -> may be to activate multiple-choices selection.
- (8) Awareness of Climate University's open MOOCS - course offerings - is also being raised. It is not clear to everyone how one can continue their studies after VE and that it is also free for CLUVEX participants (Partner universities).
- (9) We received feedback from moderators that some students had very poor English skills or some did not open the camera. These are important issues, our job as the organizers is to support all students. We are "inclusive" not "exclusionary" in this concept.
- (10) The VE Week (course) application process was also discussed. Some students have had difficulty logging into DigiCampus. Now students pre-register and receive instructions automatically on how to register for DigiCampus. In addition, we collect separate information through e-forms. including information that makes it easier when we divide into small groups for the VE Week (Aleksi Vauhkonen forms the groups based on the information in DigiCampus)
- (11) We try to “walk a fine line” between attracting students to register, but not overloading them with filling out questionnaires, which at worst can increase drop-out rates.

- WP3: Moderators’ Training for VEs - by Olga Shevchenko

Sumup notes: T3.2 “VE-based training for MOD on CU’s climate literacy for Climate Messengers (hybrid format)”

(lead TSNUK; Oct 2023 – Mar 2025)

T3.3 “VE-based training for MOD in digital co-creation for Earth science students (hybrid format) based on CU courses” (lead TSNUK; Oct 2023 – Jun 2025)

D3.2 “Online tutorial on soft-skills development and digital didactics for VE learning”

(M24, Jun 2025; resp. TSNUK, R/PU)

- (1) Draft of D3.2 should be delivered before June monthly zoom-meet

Lessons-learnt:

- (2) Moderator’s training in May-Sep 2024 was organized as 5 x training sessions in zoom. For 2nd VE Week (May 2025) we organized 3x Moderators-Get-Together" (TR1 - about 60 participants & TR3 - about 30 participants; no-show - 50%; how can we improve moderators’ participation?; once the groups are formed, it is a very difficult situation for the organizers if the moderator does not show up).

- (3) Now in the future (before each new VE Week) we will organize only 3x training sessions "Moderators-Get-Together".

Zoom-link to use is <https://helsinki.zoom.us/j/7146015233>

- (4) In particular, during these to provide/ refresh information about the CLUVEX VE concept, programme of VE Week for students, aspects of registration in the DigiCampus area for moderators; introduction in the Climate Horizon group exercise with demonstration of web-based tools for climate related data visualisation, analysis and interpretation; using Miro-board and work in breakout-zoom-rooms; answering on questions from the moderators.
- (5) It is also important: (a) to clarify the Climate Horizon group exercise for moderators; (b) to clarify the Climate University opportunities for moderators; and (c) to create a sense of community.

- WP4: Implementation of VEs - by Alexander Baklanov

Sumup notes: T4.2 “Co-creation VEs and international online pilot courses” (lead UCPH; Apr 2024 - Dec 2025)

T4.3 “Compilation of the best VE practices of CLUVEX partners and CU” (lead UCPH; Jul 2024 – Jun 2026)

D4.2 “Participation of CLUVEX partner Unis’ students to VE & CU course” (M30, Dec 2025; resp. ONU, R/PU)

D4.3 “CLUVEX best VE practices” (M36, Jun 2026; resp. UCPH, R/PU)

- (1) WP leader to contact with ONU team & clarify Task 4.2 & D4.2
- (2) Now that we have already organized 2 VE Weeks, we as organizers are on the same page and have a shared vision: The VE Weeks dates are: 3rd --- 6-10 Oct 2025, 4th --- 23-27 Feb 2026, and 5th --- 20-24 Apr 2026 and all will take place during 14-17 pm of Helsinki time. TSNUK & YSU teams will provide names of their own Hosts & Mykyta+1 and Maher+1 will co-join as the Hosts the 3rd and 4th VEWeeks.

Lessons-learnt:

- (3) We are already starting to upscale the course and are open to inviting participants from outside the CLUVEX partner universities to the course. It would be good if BioArt utilizes its own network in Finland, for example, Aalto University, or if we get new participants via the GlobaCampus platform through Baklanov. The last course already had participants from, for example, Kazakhstan, Romania, Lebanon, Iran, Italy, France
- (4) We discussed answering surveys (for students & moderators) and reporting course participants.
- (5) Now you can get a certificate of the “Climate Messenger” after registering for DigiCampus.
- (6) We do not have the opportunity to verify (technically) the presence of each student in Zoom sessions without it taking up an unreasonable amount of time and resources.
- (7) Submitting one’s own (e.g., by students or by moderators) reports is a prerequisite for receiving the ECTS credit. Note, reports are approved or rejected (majority - approved).
