UNAVEX (1 ECTS) is a virtual exchange course designed for university students interested in sustainability from all study backgrounds. The virtual exchange consists of five weekly sessions in March 2026. UNAVEX looks at sustainability from multidisciplinary and intercultural perspectives – during the virtual exchange, you will ...

- Attend inspiring guest lectures on sustainability (e.g., Tarja Halonen, the former president of Finland)
- Work in groups of like-minded students from European and African universities
- Plan a collaborative Sustainability action together with your group members

The five sessions take place in the afternoons (at 15-18 EET) on:

Thursday, 5th of March, Thursday, 12th of March, Thursday, 19th of March, Tuesday, 24th of March, and Thursday, 26th of March 2026.

More about UnaVEx:

Una Europa Virtual Exchanges for Sustainability (UnaVEx) is an international, interdisciplinary, and intercultural online bridge between European and African students for sustainability education. UnaVEx is an EU-funded ERASMUS+ project coordinated by the University of Helsinki and other leading research-intensive universities in Europe and Africa. UnaVEx offers accessible, affordable, and sustainable international online student exchange opportunities to all students interested in Global Sustainability education.

The first and second UnaVEx virtual exchanges were held in February-March and November-December of 2025. In total, five iterations of the virtual exchange will be organized in 2025-2027. UnaVEx aims to increase environmental awareness, knowledge of the green transition, and skills in sustainability transformation of young generations and societies, both in Europe and Africa. The virtual exchange looks at sustainability from economic, socio-cultural, technological, political, legal, and scientific perspectives.
